ANNOUNCEMENTS

Joys and Concerns We remember in our prayers: Bob and Shirley Holland, Amanda Bell’s grandmother, and our at home members.

The children of FIPC will meet directly after worship on January 23rd for lunch and our fruit of the spirit study.

We will begin sharing a financial report with the congregation on the third Sunday of every month. We give thanks to God for those who continue to give during these difficult times and are deeply grateful for the financial support of our members and church friends.

*Call to Worship

Donna Ricard

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Come, behold the works of the Lord;
Be still, and know that I am God!

*Hymn

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

FAITHFULNESS

Great is thy faithfulness, O God my Father; there is no shadow of turning with thee.
Thou changest not; thy compassions they fail not. As thou hast been thou forever wilt be.

Refrain: Great is thy faithfulness! Great is thy faithfulness! Morning by morning, new mercies I see.
All I have needed thy hand hath provided. Great is thy faithfulness, Lord unto me!

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth, thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide, strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow: blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside! (Refrain)

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Loving Lord, we long to be your faithful people, but our good intentions run out and we come up empty. For all the ways we fall short in our sin, forgive us, Gracious One. Change us – like water into wine – to become what the world lacks, that our community, our nation, our church, and all creation may know your justice and love. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news of the gospel:
In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, made new and freed to try again.
Thanks be to God!

*Affirmation of Faith

from The Confession of 1967

In Jesus of Nazareth, true humanity was realized once for all. Jesus, a Palestinian Jew, lived among his people and shared their needs, temptations, joys, and sorrows. He expressed the love of God in word and deed and became a brother to all kinds of sinful men and women. But his complete obedience led him into conflict with his people. His life and teaching judged their goodness, religious aspirations, and national hopes. Many rejected him and demanded his death. In giving himself freely for them, he took upon himself the judgment under which everyone stands convicted. God raised him from the dead, vindicating him as Messiah and Lord. The victim of sin became victor, and won the victory over sin and death for all.

Prayers of the People

Reception of Tithes and Offerings

Offertory

Prayer of Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Called as Partners in Christ's Service

BEECHER

Called as partners in Christ's service, called to ministries of grace, we respond with deep commitment fresh new lines of faith to trace.
May we learn the art of sharing, side by side and friend with friend, equal partners in our caring to fulfill God's chosen end.

So God grant us for tomorrow ways to order human life that surround each person's sorrow with a calm that conquers strife.
Make us partners in our living, our compassion to increase,
messengers of faith, thus giving hope and confidence and peace.
